The God who spoke the universe into existence still speaks today. God has seven love languages that he uses to communicate to his people: Scripture, desires, doors, dreams, people, promptings, and pain. With Scripture, just slightly above the other languages...REALLY?

Are we listening to God?

Listen: Merriam-Webster

1: to pay attention to sound

listen to music

2: to hear something with thoughtful attention: give consideration

listen to a plea

3: to be alert to catch an expected sound

listen for his step

- Adam at the Garden
 - Genesis 2:16 -17, Genesis 3:6
- King Saul and the Amalekites
 - 1 Samuel 15:1 – 9

James 1:22

²² But prove yourselves doers of the word, and not merely hearers who delude themselves.

Psalm 81:13

¹³ “Oh that My people would listen to Me, that Israel would walk in My ways!”

Hebrews 2:1 – NASB 1995

¹ For this reason we must pay much closer attention to what we have heard, lest we drift away from it.

Hebrews 2:1 – KJV

¹ Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip away.

Hebrews 2:2 – 3 NASB 1995

² For if the word spoken through angels proved unalterable and every transgression and disobedience received a just penalty,

³ how will we escape if we neglect so great a salvation? After it was at first spoken through the Lord and it was confirmed to us by those who heard

Hebrews 2:3 – NASB 1995

₃ how will we escape if we neglect so great a salvation...

Amelesantes – To be careless; neglect; disregard; pay no attention to

Hebrews 2:1 – NASB 1995

1 For this reason we must pay much closer attention to what we have heard, lest we drift away from it.

Hebrews 2:1 – KJV

Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip away.

John Calvin – Hebrews 2:1 Commentary

“The true sense is to be gathered from the contrast of to give heed and to let slip...to let off like a sieve or a perforated vessel, whatever that may be poured in to it...and attentive mind is like a vessel capable of holding water, but that which is roving and indolent is like a vessel with holes.

Hebrews 2:1 – KJV

1 Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip away.

Hebrews 2:3 – NASB 1995

3 how will we escape if we neglect so great a salvation...
